Description

A Val Saint Lambert glass vase of sinuous form with spiral ribs, attributed to the designer René Delvenne, in emerald green with a colourless glass overlay.

The Val Saint Lambert glassworks is a renowned Belgian crystal manufacturer established in 1826 in Seraing, near Liège. Known for its high-quality craftsmanship and artistry, Val Saint Lambert produced all manner of exquisite crystal glassware, including vases, bowls, drinking glasses, chandeliers and other decorative items. Its designs often combine traditional techniques with innovative styles, making it a highly regarded brand in the world of luxury glassware. The double-overlay technique, where layers of coloured and clear glass are combined, became the company's signature style. René Delvenne was a Belgian designer associated with Val Saint Lambert, renowned for helping shape the company's distinctive mid-20th-century crystal designs. His work is celebrated for its elegant modernist forms, sculptural lines, and innovative use of coloured crystal, making pieces such as the Vatel, Mulette, and Medusa vases highly sought after by collectors today.
